DAWES NAMED AS HEAD OF GERMAN FINANCIAL QUIZ

Chicagoan Expected to Begin Work Jan. 15.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)
PARIS, Dec. 21.—(Tribune Radio.)—The reparations commission today named Gen. Charles G. Dawes of Chicago president of the expert committee which will investigate the possibilities of balancing the German budget and stabilizing the currency.

Gen. D. Young, chairman of the board of directors of the General Electric company, is also a member of the committee. The reparations commission now is sounding out a New Year as a member of the second committee to attempt to find a hidden German wealth.

It is expected that Gen. Dawes and Mr. Young will sail for Paris early in January, but their committee can begin operations by Jan. 15.

Delay Germany's Credit Plan.
The reparations commission has refused to the various governments the German request for priority over reparations payments for $70,000,000 credits to purchase foodstuffs. No decision is expected to be reached until Prime Minister Baldwin resigns and a new cabinet is formed in London. Germany, it is believed, plans to spend most of the credits in the United States.

THE TRIBUNE understands that the German government will protest against any delay on proposed credits because every day brings Germany nearer starvation. Immediate action is believed necessary to prepare for feeding the starving masses in the cities.

DAWES IS RELUCTANT.
Gen. Dawes was reluctant yesterday concerning his appointment as chairman of the German finance investigation committee. He said he would not sail at liberty to make a statement until officially notified of the appointment. A number of Gen. Dawes' friends, however, declared there is no doubt but that he will accept the post and will probably leave Chicago early in January. Several bankers called to congratulate him yesterday.

BRITISH FIGHT FRENCH PLAN

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, Dec. 21.—The appointment of Augustus M. Jones as special commissioner dealing with the fight of German capital abroad is indicative of the beginning of a new struggle between the French and British. Mr. McKenna, who probably is the greatest of the British bankers, has been appointed to resist to the utmost the French efforts to secure German money in foreign banks.

The French, it is stated, intend to demand that the British appoint a royal commission with power to summon bankers, compel them to give evidence under oath, and learn from them the amount of German deposits. The city of London is up in arms against this suggestion.

It is said that there is at least $200,000,000 (roughly $440,000,000) of German money deposited in British banks and that some interests, like the Rothschilds and Schroeders, hold more German than British money. If Great Britain shows any signs of weakening, the money will be withdrawn from the British banks and sent somewhere where it would be safe before the allies would have time to lay their hands on it.

effect on the coming elections or on internal affairs, and could stand discussion in broad daylight.
France would evacuate the Ruhr if she were not convinced that the occupation was legal and would become profitable, he said. France would have had nothing this year if she had not taken the Ruhr; she would not have had protection nor held guarantees, he added.

He denied that Germany made any new proposal just before the Ruhr was occupied. The German ambassador, he said, had only transmitted an offer from the German under secretary of foreign affairs, of $5,000,000,000 gold marks ($5,000,000,000).

Calla Offer Ridiculous.
"A ridiculous offer," commented the premier, "for that amount should already have been paid if the treaty was strictly enforced. It was simply a German maneuver to prevent France from making guarantees."

"If we had not occupied the Ruhr," Germany mistress of her coal and steel works, would have continued to enrich herself at our expense, and at the end of the moratorium if we had asked for something she would have answered: 'Come and get it.'"

"We have not had to regret the occupation of the Ruhr," "Quite the contrary. We have acted for the best interests of the country and it was to be done over again, we would reform the occupation, which revealed latent fires of hate and a spirit of revenge. It also showed Germany that she is not the strongest and that although she wishes for revenge her wish will not be realized."

BOOK RIGHTS OF HIRSCH SERMONS ISSUE IN SUIT

Stenographer Sued by Rabbi's Son.

Whether a man has property rights to his utterances is an intricate legal question, which will be settled in a suit for an injunction filed yesterday on behalf of Mrs. Mathilda E. Hirsch, widow, and Samuel E. Hirsch, son of the late Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch, Dr. Hirsch, prior to his death last January, for forty-three years was head of the Sinai congregation at 46th street and Grand boulevard.

Twelve sermons preached by Rabbi Hirsch during the winter of 1920, are involved in the suit. Harry Malcom, 4012 Prairie avenue, a court stenographer, who of his own volition took the sermons down, is the defendant. Malcom wishes to publish the sermons in a book; it is charged. Judge Hugo Friend in the Circuit court issued a temporary injunction restraining Malcom from carrying out his designs and ordered Malcom to appear and take issue.

Filed by Son's Firm.
The suit was filed by the law firm of which the son is a partner—Ringer, Wilbarts & Hirsch.

It is charged that Malcom about six months before the death of Dr. Hirsch, went to the Jewish pastor seeking an arrangement whereby he might publish the sermons in book form. Rabbi Hirsch agreed to enter into an arrangement, but asked first to be allowed to revise the sermons.

Malcom agreed to this. It is set forth, but the rabbi fell slowly from that time on into that last illness. After Rabbi Hirsch's death Malcom went to the widow still seeking permission to publish the sermons. She refused him to her son and an agreement was made whereby the sermons might be published after they had been read over and revised by Dr. Gerson B. Levi, rabbi of the Temple Israel, 554 street and Michigan boulevard, a relative of Dr. Hirsch.

No Desire to Make Money.
"We had no wish to make any money out of the publication," said Samuel E. Hirsch yesterday, "and we took matters of publication up with the Malcom company and agreed to let Malcom have practically his own royalties."

Malcom agreed and the sermons were turned over to Dr. Levi, who edited and revised them—we wanted them to do justice to my father's memory. When this work was done, Malcom got them back, saying he wished to make 'clean copies,' and he has since refused to go through with our agreement; and, we understand, has arranged for publication on his own behalf."

Here are the titles of some of the sermons involved: "My Religion and the Religion of Jesus"; "My Religion and Dogmatic Christianity"; "Our Religion to Jesus as a Healer"; "My Kingdom Is Not of This World"; "What Is Truth?"; "Crime and Delinquency—What Should Religion Do?"

GREEK MILITARY CHIEFS REFUSE TO GIVE UP RULE

ATHENS, Dec. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Gonatas, replying to demands from the republicans that the government be turned over to them because of their successes in the election today announced that the government would retain power until the national assembly had convened and elected its president.

Following the departure from Greece of King George and Queen Elizabeth at the request of the government the minister of war has ordered all pictures of the king removed from the military offices. Other departments are also banning the king's picture.

An appeal sent to M. Venizelos by army officers declares the dynasty is ended and says the officers desire him to return and reunite the people in a republic.

Ex-County Commissioner Jailed as Booze Seller

William D. Scott, former county commissioner, proprietor of a saloon at 2713 South Ashland avenue, known as "The Island," pleaded guilty to a charge of selling intoxicating liquor before Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe yesterday and was sentenced to serve ninety days in the Kane county jail in Geneva. Thomas Sexton, his high tender, also was sent to jail to serve out a fine of $250.

HOUSE G. O. P. TO MEET JAN. 10 ON SOLDIER BONUS

Committee Action Hinges on Conference.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Tentative plans have been formulated by Republican house leaders for a party conference on Jan. 10 at which a definite policy relative to soldier bonus legislation will be agreed upon.

The program for a conference attended by all Republican members to deal with the bonus question is agreeable both to the group of ex-service men in the house and to members of the ways and means committee, which has the legislation in charge.

To Get House Sentiment.
Under this plan the sentiment of the house Republicans will be made known before the ways and means committee begins consideration of the bonus bill. The Republican members of the ways and means committee, which expects to take up the bonus bill about the middle of January, will then be in a position to act in accordance with the desires of the majority of the party.

The assumption is that the party conference will go on record by an overwhelming vote in favor of the bonus bill in substantially the same form as voted by the late President Harding. The action of the Republican conference will not be binding and those opposing the bonus will vote against it on the floor of the house.

Bonus to Follow Tax Bill.
Representative Green (Rep., Ind.), chairman of the ways and means committee, predicted today that the committee will conclude its work on administrative provisions of the tax bill between Jan. 10 and Jan. 15. Under the program as already agreed upon consideration of the bonus bill will then be in order before the committee takes up changes in tax rates.

SAYS HE LOVES TWO WIVES AND BOTH LOVE HIM

William Henry Alexander, 23 years old, of Texarkana, Ark., who is being held at the central station for the authorities of Dallas, Tex., on a charge of bigamy, declared yesterday he finds himself in the provoking predicament of loving both wives and being loved by both.

He said he had left his first wife, Mrs. Lena Ward, only because she had discovered her first husband, Billy Ward, a minister, was alive and not dead as she had supposed. His second wife, Gladys Myrtle Harper, whom he married in November, went back to Dallas from Denver, he said, because she was homesick. Both wives are said to be on their way to Chicago.

FIND BODY NEAR FIVE NEW GRAVES; BARE RUM CACHE

For a few hours yesterday, after finding the body of a man lying near five freshly dug graves in the forest preserve in La Grange, the police believed they had struck a "murder cemetery." Then, after several hours' digging, they unearthed a cask and decided the "graves" had been dug by booze runners as caches for liquor. The body was identified as that of W. A. Appel of 1818 Washington boulevard. Several phials, believed to have contained poison, were found.

GEN. VILLAREAL REPELS OBREGON ARMY AT PUEBLA

Almazan Retires; Awaits
Reinforcements.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
Tampico, Dec. 21.—Gen. Antonio Villareal has withdrawn his revolutionary forces into Puebla and has defeated the desperate efforts of Gen. Almazan throughout Thursday to capture the city. The federal forces have withdrawn a few miles and are waiting for more reinforcements to come up. There are being drawn from northern central Mexico. The attack will be renewed in a few days.

The situation on all other fronts has undergone little change. The insurgents around Oriental, Esperanza, and eastward of San Marcos are holding their positions or obstinately retreating, tearing up the railway.

On the western front, despite the operations of the federalists close to Guadalajara, they have not been able to shake Gen. Enrique Estrada from his headquarters on the northern shores of Lake Chapala. The tendency seems to be to await the result of the Obregon campaign east of Mexico City.

Madro's Role?
Culiacan, Sinaloa, Mex., Dec. 21.—Raul Madro, former candidate for the presidency of Mexico, arrived here this morning from Mexico City to take over the management of the presidential campaign of Gov. Angel Flores of Sinaloa.

Raul Madro is generally regarded in Mexico as a supporter of Adolfo de la Huerta in the present revolution. He is a close political associate of Gen. Antonio Villareal and of Gen. Salvador Alvarado.

ARTILLERY IN WEST

(Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.)
Tampico, Dec. 21.—(Delayed.)—The second regiment of artillery arrived here from Mexico City last night. This morning the batteries opened fire on the neighboring hills, getting "excellent results." The first of the Mexican can airplanes arrived here yesterday. The planes passed in review today and probably will go to Coahuila tonight.

Two German passenger airplanes which the insurgents took from fair authorities at Guadalajara at the outbreak of the revolution, passed Guadalajara two days ago and have not been seen since.

The second and third regiments of artillery are on their way to take part in the siege of Guadalajara. The rebels are said to have some artillery which they took from regiments stationed in the valley of Mexico at the outbreak of the revolt.

Heavy Reserve Used.
Gen. Escobar, in charge of the military operations near Guadalajara, left for the front early this morning. He is expected back here tonight.

The plan of mobilization, as revealed today, shows that in addition to 15,000 or more men of all arms going through here, other strong forces are being poured into concentration camps around Guadalajara from the Pacific coast and other points, including Sonora, Sinaloa, Nayarit, and western Jalisco. These belong to the reserve forces of the national army and are mountain fighters.

The object of bringing up these western forces is to prevent the insurgents from passing through the national line in a body and reaching the mountains west of Guadalajara.

All reports from northern states reaching here state that there is perfect quiet and that business is moving normally.

Two agrarian leaders arrived here today and it is reported that the agrarians in the north are recruiting troops for the government.

QUAKE

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 21.—Additional reports received here today regarding the earthquake which was at first reported to have wiped out three towns, Opito, Huasabas, and Granadino, in Sonora, Mexico, indicate that Huasabas and Granadino were raised, but that Opito was undamaged.

A courier was sent on horseback today out of Pinar to the stricken zone. To cover the distance of about forty miles, it is necessary for him to cross two ranges of mountains.

President Durango de Aguirre, Sonora, was busy engaged today in gathering food supplies and tents to be sent to the disaster zone. Many lives were lost in the same region in an earthquake in 1888.

recently in a clash with rebel forces at Tepic, Gen. Antonio Ortega, former federal chief of military operations in the state of Nayarit, was brought to Nogales today.

Gen. Ortega was reported killed when the rebels captured Tepic last week, but he explained upon his arrival here that he escaped from Tepic in an automobile after he had been wounded by the rebels.

"On Saturday morning, Dec. 8, about 5 o'clock," the general said, "I was seated at my desk at headquarters, together with two of my staff officers and a press correspondent for a Mexican newspaper. My guard, composed of about twenty men, under a captain, came to the door of my office and began firing."

"Mora dropped dead. I received four wounds and dropped to the floor. But in a second I arose and began remounting. The disloyal troops fled. I found Villareal mortally wounded and the press correspondent dead on the floor, having dropped from the chair in which he was seated."

"Following the shooting I went to a hospital for first aid and then took an automobile for Culiacan."

Result in North.
Jaures, Mexico, Dec. 21.—Defenses Social and federal troops are pursuing Gen. Manuel Chao, former Villareal, and his twenty-four revolutionaries, who held up and attacked the combination freight and passenger train between Rosario, Durango, and Parral, Chihuahua, according to passengers who arrived in Jaures this afternoon on the train from Chihuahua City.

TRUSTEES STILL UNDECIDED UPON SCHOOLS CHIEF
Chicago will not have a new superintendent of schools until after Jan. 1, it was learned yesterday. Members of the board of education said they had not agreed on any candidate to succeed Victor A. Morrison. While it was admitted William J. Hogan, Benjamin F. Buck, and William B. Owen are leading candidates, it is not certain either will be selected.

Meanwhile the new school plan commission began its study of housing conditions, systems of school management, and community center problems. This is the commission on which Miss Annie Blustrey refused to serve and which is not favored by the Teachers' Federation. Four members of the commission—B. Wright, assistant superintendent of schools; Albert P. Allen of the Chicago Telephone company; Harris Keeler of the Public Electric bureau; and Carl Hoffman, a high school teacher—are said to be opposed by a majority of teachers in the federation.

Any candidate for superintendent who is known to favor the platoon system in the schools will be looked upon with disfavor by the federation, it was intimated.

Denials and Repudiations
Make U. S. Smile.

MOSCOW, Dec. 21.—(United News.)—Foreign Minister Tchitcherine of Russia has challenged Secretary of State Hughes to produce "before any impartial court of arbitration" the documents presented as communist propaganda for an American revolution.

The foreign minister says that unless Mr. Hughes does this, the secretary of state "will show the whole world he consciously made himself instrumental in broadcasting forged documents."

Mr. Tchitcherine demands the "unconditional withdrawal" of the documents if they are not submitted to a tribunal, and says, "it is up to Secretary Hughes to acquit himself" of charges that the papers are forged.

The Soviet minister issued his challenge in a statement today after he had read the full text of the documents published in America and had conferred with the communist international, which was said to have sent the revolutionary instructions.

Gregory Zinoviev, president of the communist international, says the documents are forgeries, as does Steifeloff, editor of the newspaper Ievstia, which the documents quoted as approving the connection between the international, as the propaganda organization of the communist party, and the Russian government.

"Having acquainted myself with the contents of the Hughes documents, I communicated with Zinoviev and Steifeloff," Mr. Tchitcherine said. "On behalf of the Soviet government, as well as of Zinoviev and Steifeloff, I emphatically declare that the documents are an unmitigated forgery, like the infamous 'Sisson papers'."

The Sisson papers were documents made public in America in the fall of 1918 by the committee of public information. They were obtained in Moscow by Edgar Sisson, formerly city editor of the Tribune, and stated that Lenin and Trotsky were paid agents of the German government.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—There is no likelihood that the United States government will submit to arbitration the authenticity of documents which the state department recently made public to show that revolutionary Soviet activities and propaganda are being conducted in this country with the object of undermining the government.

The American government is fully satisfied with the genuineness of the communications made public from the Soviet to workers in this country and believes that to enter any such proceedings as suggested by Foreign Minister Tchitcherine in a statement in Moscow today would involve a proceeding long sought by the Russian authorities.

Secretary Hughes in his recent statement, which was transmitted to Tchitcherine, made it clear that negotiations cannot precede the cessation of Soviet propaganda in the United States and the adoption of measures for the Russian authorities to demonstrate their good faith in the discharge of their just international obligations.

Authenticity Carefully Traced.
State department officials are confident that they can demonstrate the authenticity of Soviet revolutionary documents in their possession before the senate foreign relations committee during its study of the Russian question which is proposed for after the holidays. The department of justice, it was said today, not only has given assurances of their genuineness, but has said their authenticity can be traced directly to the Soviet government in Russia.

The assertion of Tchitcherine that the documents are forgeries not only was expected by American officials but is regarded by them as a species of propaganda in itself.

PHYSICIAN NOW SOUGHT AS HEAD OF DRAKE PLOT

Hotel Help Starts
Caste War.

Nine more members of the gang of blackmailers who attempted to extort money from John B. Drake of the Drake hotel and other prominent citizens are being sought by the police, postal authorities, and Bureau detectives.

A wide side physician of foreign extraction, chief of the "bricks" of the band, probably will be taken into custody today.

Several persons were upset yesterday by news of the arrest of Nicholas Manoeloff, George Gonsell, and Joseph Robinson, three elevator men at the Drake hotel. Chief among these was Claude B. Johnson, a south side dealer in automobile accessories.

Why Johnson Got Huffy.
Bureau detectives had given Manoeloff's fictitious rival the name of "Claude B. Johnson" when they played upon his jealousy, not knowing that a person of that name actually lived in the vicinity.

Mr. Johnson hastened to the front yesterday when the complaint that his wife accused him of having been the man who trifled with the affections of Manoeloff's sweetheart. He declared emphatically he never met the young woman and received no threatening letters from Manoeloff warning him "to lay off."

Caste Among "Bell Staff."
Another general protest came from the bell men at the Drake hotel, who resented that the prisoners had been referred to as "bell boys." In the first place, they pointed out, there is no such thing as a "bell boy" at the Drake. They are known there as "bell men" and, moreover, are socially superior, higher than freight elevator operators or "gunmen," as the prisoners are known in hotel parlance.

Manoeloff was questioned again last night by Chief of Detectives Hughes and while he admitted having addressed the threatening letters to "Claude B. Johnson," denied emphatically having written the Drake letters or the extortion threats to Charles E. Chapman, South Halsted street jeweler. Robinson, it was stated, will be released, as the police are convinced he had no part in the conspiracy.

"Ex-Service Men's Agent"
Freed of Police Charge
Lester Olllette, 3744 Hampton court, arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, was released yesterday in the Sheffield avenue court. Papers indicated he had committed more than $1,000 by representing himself as a member of the "Ex-Service Men's League." The court ruled he had not misrepresented the scheme. Testimony showed he had been seized on suspicion.

Waukegan Girls Among
17 Taken as Shoplifters
Seventeen persons accused of shoplifting, including seven girls from Waukegan, were arraigned yesterday in the South Court street court. The Waukegan girls were granted continuances. Four women and six men were fined from $10 to $25 and sentenced to prison for ten days. During the afternoon eight more women were arrested.

SUPREME COURT VOIDS MEDICAL LAW OF 1899

In a decision handed down yesterday declaring the medical practice act of 1899 unconstitutional, the Illinois Supreme court laid open the question, in the opinion of medical and legal authorities, of reshaping all present medical license laws.

The decision, which reversed a Cook county court in fining an osteopath for performing a surgical operation, may make it legal for osteopaths to perform operations and to administer drugs, it was declared. The case in question was that of Robert E. Schaefer, who was fined $100 in Cook county. Physicians coming under the act of July, 1922, will not be affected. But with the act of 1899 stricken from the statute the standing of physicians is opened at a prior date will be governed only by the act of 1887, lawyers declared.

If this act is attacked on the same grounds, that of discriminating against one particular school, and was also declared unconstitutional, it was pointed out, physicians of long standing might find their license worthless.

"POLISH CITY" IN DETROIT WANTS POLICE OUSTED

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—A resolution demanding that the state police evacuate Hamtramck was today drawn up by a committee appointed at a meeting at which "Polish rule" for Hamtramck was demanded. Hamtramck is a city of 49,000 inhabitants situated within the limits of Detroit.

Judge Taffia of federal court was criticized for his recent attack on the liquor situation in Hamtramck. Justice Phillips of Hamtramck was hoisted into silence when he attempted to defend Judge Taffia and the state legislature. The Hamtramck council and state police were attacked violently. The speeches were mainly in Polish and when Justice Phillips tried to speak he was told that the Polish language should be heard only and for him to leave the hall. Health Commissioner Dyars said that Hamtramck should be declared a city by Polish people and that all others should get out.

ASK $25,000 TO REVEAL HIDING PLACE OF KORETZ

Crowe Summons Lawyers
Who Tell of Offer.

Offers were made yesterday to discover the hiding place of Leo Koretz, who was arrested at $25,000. Whereupon State's Attorney Crowe summoned the reward seekers, Alexander L. Saran, an insurance man with offices at 19 South La Salle street, Attorney Thomas W. Bramhall, and Attorney Louis Grollman, to his office.

The offer was revealed by Attorney Maurice Berkson, representing the receiver of the wreck of the Bayano Trust. Mr. Berkson caused Bramhall to be subpoenaed before Referee in Bankruptcy Harry Parkin, where a hearing to discover assets was in progress. Bramhall at first evaded naming the offer who asked him to negotiate for a reward. He contended the matter was a "privileged communication" between lawyer and client.

No Retainer Paid.
When Attorney Joseph Fleming brought out that no retainer had been paid Bramhall, Referee Parkin said: "I am going to ask you to give the name in the interest of justice."

Bramhall said he thought it was all a joke, but Saran thought he knew where Koretz, for whom arrest a reward of $1,000 was offered during the day, could be found. He said he thought Saran intended looking for Koretz if the reward was sufficient.

Attorney Grollman apparently believed Saran knew Koretz's hiding place from the manner in which he said to have bargained for a large amount. Mr. Bramhall, when called to State's Attorney Crowe's office, repeated that the client supposed to have the Koretz information was Saran, whose home is in Wisconsin. Mr. Saran agreed to come to Mr. Crowe's office for questioning today, but insisted his "information" consisted only of his own theories.

"I have nothing definite as to Koretz and never say the man," he said. "I have certain theories which I consider tenable, but I will not discuss them with officials."

Consolidation Fund.
Attorneys Berkson and Fleming, in behalf of the receiver, interested themselves principally in the task of getting together as much of a "consolidation fund" as possible for the friends of "Big Hearted Leo," who lost faith in the "great Bayano oil discovery." They left to police, federal authorities, and State's Attorney Crowe the task of hunting Koretz.

Witnesses at the bankruptcy hearing were Miss Pearl Mayer, Leon J. Klein, and E. B. Woolf. Miss Mayer was testifying in place of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Mayer, mother-in-law of Leo Koretz, and the recipient of $25,000 of the $300,000 Koretz parcel out to his relatives on the eve of his flight. She explained that Mrs. Mayer is 72 years of age and has been in ill health since the discovery of her son-in-law's exposure.

Miss Mayer was questioned principally as to her mother's reason for not joining in with the others who gave up $25,000 to State's Attorney Crowe. She said, in substance, that her mother looked upon the $25,000 as restitution, inasmuch as Leo Koretz had taken possession of all the estate of her late husband, which Miss Mayer estimated as amounting to $37,500 in known values and considerable property and securities of which the

Witnesses at the bankruptcy hearing were Miss Pearl Mayer, Leon J. Mayer, and E. E. Woolf. BIG CAPITAL RUM PLOT INVOLVES ALIEN LEGATION Arrests Said to Bare Huge Conspiracy.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—What the federal government regards as a "gigantic" conspiracy against the Volstead act in the capital of the United States is expected to be uncovered with the arrest here today of a group of bootleggers and the issuance of warrants for several others, including several young women. Four were arraigned in court today and held under heavy bonds.

Interest in the case is increased by complications with a foreign legation when an attempt was made by the local vice squad to seize liquor stored in a warehouse said to be controlled by a syndicate represented by the operators under arrest.

Legation Official Protested. When the police went to the warehouse, filled with thousands of dollars' worth of liquor, the secretary of one of the foreign legations appeared to protest on the ground that the liquor was immune from seizure and was the property of the legation. Police have withheld the identity of the diplomat who protested, but have reported the matter to the state department.

In commenting on the case today Assistant United States District Attorney F. J. McLaughlin said:

"This case represents a well defined attempt to hold in contempt the national prohibition act on a gigantic scale."

Involved High Officials. Police officials say they have smashed a bootlegging syndicate whose books—now in possession of the police—list prominent Washingtonians, including some in the capital and some in the house office building, as clients.

The names on the list have not been made public.

SUPREME COURT ASKED TO RULE ON MEDICAL BEER

Washington, Dec. 21.—The right of physicians to prescribe beer was denied in a brief filed today by the government with the Supreme court in a test case expected to result in final determination of that question.

Defending the constitutionality of the Willis-Campbell anti-beer law, the brief, signed by Solicitor General Beck and Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, in charge of prohibition prosecutions, declared that beer had no medicinal value and that its prohibition under physicians' prescriptions was necessary to enforce national prohibitions.

The case is an appeal by the James Everard's breweries from a decision by Federal Judge Hand of New York dismissing an injunction sought against the New York prohibition director.

City's "Conscience Fund" Gains $75; Giver Mystery Father Eugene of St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Clark and Polk streets, yesterday visited Mayor Dever in behalf of an unnamed parishioner. He laid $75 before the mayor, declaring "his acceptance by the city would bring happiness to a worried person."

"A troubled conscience drove the person to ask me to return it to the city for him," he added.

The Tribune company yesterday distributed a 1923 bonus to its employees. All shared in it—approximately 2,000 women and men, including the unionized employees in the mechanical departments and staff men in all parts of the globe.

The bonus is based on graded percentages, considering salary and length of service, those whose annual earnings are less than $4,000 receiving a somewhat larger percentage than those with higher salaries.

TWO RAILROADS ACCEPT PART OF TERMINAL PLAN

City Officials Believe the Project Assured.

The agreement on track elevation problems yesterday strengthened hopes that the two railroads would accept a part of the plan for the terminal area. The plan, which is being considered by the city, would provide for the construction of a new terminal area, including a new passenger station and a new freight station. The plan also would provide for the construction of a new bridge over the Chicago River and a new bridge over the Lake Michigan shore.

City officials believe the project is assured. They believe the railroads will accept a part of the plan, which would provide for the construction of a new terminal area, including a new passenger station and a new freight station. The plan also would provide for the construction of a new bridge over the Chicago River and a new bridge over the Lake Michigan shore.

Expect Early Action. Because the B. & O. C. T. company is the local holding company for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which is even now engaged in a bitter struggle with the New York Central before the Interstate Commerce commission for control of the Chicago River and Indiana line, the unexpected harmony in track elevation plans suggests well for agreement in the near future on the river straightening program, the city officials said.

Within two weeks, according to Mr. Batchelder, the B. & O. C. T. the C. & N. Y. C. T. the Grand Trunk, and the Pennsylvania lines will have agreed on practicable grades for the four systems which meet between 38th and 44th streets and a scheme for track elevation will be presented to Commissioner Sprague for approval. If his sanction is forthcoming work will be begun almost immediately.

See Results to Live Here. Mr. Batchelder's promises were not obtained, however, until he had decried at the necessity of the expensive project.

"I know that the B. & O. C. T. is buying equipment and laying new track all over its system," declared Col. Sprague, "and it is only fair that you should spend a little in Chicago, especially in a move which is bound to save lives, relieve street congestion, and, without doubt, expedite your own traffic."

RAILROAD MAN FINE. Judge George E. Holmes yesterday fined Peter Murphy, a subcontractor at 213 South Wells street, $100 and costs on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

WILL CONSIDER OURSELVES REFUTED. Chicago, Dec. 19.—In refuting the editorial, "The Soft East," let me state that it is utterly baseless. I confess I don't know much about Mr. Campy, but I do know the ability of the eastern football players.

Had the writer of the editorial ever been east of the Alleghenies, and had he ever seen an eastern football game, he might retract his statement. I witnessed the Harvard-Yale game this fall and believe it takes some "spunk" to play in that mud and rain. I never saw a more determined and opportunistic group of football players.

If the writer says that football is too rough for them, he should have seen them slide halfway down the field through water and mud. As for ability, I'll put this year's Yale team against any western team and Yale will come out with honors.

COAL OPERATORS EYE PAY CUT AS MEN EYE RAISE

A move by Illinois coal operators to procure a reduction in wages, effective on April 1, when the present contract expires, was intimated yesterday. It was reported at the same time that the union will formulate plans to demand a 10 per cent wage increase, a five day week, and a six hour day, at a conference on Jan. 23 in Indianapolis.

Illinois operators, meeting yesterday in the Great Northern hotel, voted to unite with the operators of Indiana, Ohio, and western Pennsylvania in an attempt to effect a joint agreement for the central competitive field.

Renewal of the "war" between President John L. Lewis and Alexander Howatt, radical union leader of Kansas, is expected at the Indianapolis meeting of the miners. Howatt is said to have joined forces recently with William E. Foster in an attempt to present a formidable front in opposition to Lewis.

ASKS COMPLETE NEW SURVEY ON SUBWAY PROBLEM

Ald. Mills Would Discard
Data of Many Years.

BY OSCAR HEWITT. Ald. Wiley W. Mills (7th) today asked the city council to make a complete new survey of the subway problem. He said that the data of many years is obsolete and that a new survey is needed. He said that the city should not be misled by the data of many years, which is obsolete and that a new survey is needed.

One Alderman Asked. "It is astounding to suggest that these questions have not been answered in the various transportation reports," commented Ald. Frank Hanauer (49th). "It is a fact that we have not had a thorough scientific investigation," Mills replied.

"We don't want more commissions," he said. "We want to express our view. You ask another commission with a lawyer on it. Haven't we already got three lawyers? You want a commission with an engineer. Haven't we two or three engineers now?"

Several aldermen called for Mayor R. F. Keller, engineering adviser of the city, to report on the specific points raised by Ald. Mills.

Mayor Dever declined to say whether the Mills resolution should be passed, claiming it was a council matter. He also withheld further comment, except to say that he was not fully informed on the construction of subway by special assessment.

On the other hand, it is said that neither the alderman nor the mayor is now ready to urge the immediate construction of a subway, but there is no desire here to commit either official on a subway policy. Especially so, in the face of the private opinion of the prominent administration leaders that the Mills resolution means strenuous opposition to subways at any place in the city.

Scope of Study. The Mills resolution provides for a commission "to make a prompt, thorough, scientific investigation and study of the questions:

"1.—Whether traction subways are desirable and necessary in Chicago.

"2.—Whether, if desirable and necessary, they are feasible and practicable in view of Chicago's massive buildings and clay subsoil.

VETTER COUPLE CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

New York, Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. Marie Vetter and her husband, Ernest Vetter, accused of the murder of Alvin Karpis, former friend of Mrs. Vetter, were found guilty of manslaughter in the first degree today by a jury in Long Island City. The maximum penalty that may be imposed upon the Vetter is twenty years' imprisonment.

The Vetter faced the jury box unmoved as the jurors filed in. When the foreman, in answer to the query of the clerk of the court, answered "We find the defendants guilty of manslaughter in the first degree," Mrs. Vetter screamed and fell into her husband's arms.

Vetter kissed his wife several times, appearing to be as calm as any person in the courtroom.

ONCE CHUMS, NOW 2 FAMILIES WAR; SUIT IS LATEST

The Mackenzie and the Kagan were great chums. But when Sgt. Thomas Kagan was shot and killed in August, 1921, while protecting former Chief of Police Fitzgerald's home, only William H. Mackenzie and Mrs. Gertrude Kagan appear to have continued the friendship.

Yesterday, in a suit for $19,000 damages, Mrs. Anna Mackenzie of 7115 Colburn avenue charged Mrs. Kagan, who recently became the second Mrs. Mackenzie, with alienation of Mackenzie's affections.

Mrs. Mackenzie No. 1 divorced her husband on a charge of desertion. Mackenzie, an installation engineer for a concern at 175 North Michigan avenue, then married the widow of his old pal, Kagan.

HIGH COURT NIPS SMALL'S RAID ON PARK PAY ROLLS

Upholds Merit Act; Halts Spoilsman Tactics.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Gov. Len Small's efforts to break down the barrier protecting the pay rolls of the Lincoln park and west park systems, so that his use of them for spoils purposes might go unhindered, were frustrated yesterday by the Illinois Supreme court.

Upon a test case, brought by friends of the law, the state's highest tribunal sustained the constitutionality of the civil service act governing the Chicago park systems. At one point during the battle of the last two years Small's attorneys won an opposite ruling from the court, but by prompt action that victory was upset, and the law now is considered safe from further attack.

Park Penalties Also Saved.
The new decision, in addition to saving the parks from the spoils system, giving some of the already ousted employees a chance to get their jobs back, and preventing further wholesale ousters for refusal to circulate Small's pledge cards, has the further important effect of saving thousands of employees the penalties of which they were almost robbed.

To some extent the Supreme court hearing was a result of the Riverview park ticket scandal, which arose when Lincoln park employees were forced to buy tickets for a Thompson picnic at the amusement park. But more directly the affair was considered one of the regular steps of Gov. Small to reach civil service wherever it interfered with the development of his political machine.

Hostile to Merit Rule.
He has openly declared his hostility to state civil service and in the 121 session of the legislature was narrowly prevented from putting through a big raid on the system. At the last session, when an effort was made to pass a bill remedying supposed technical defects in the enactment of the law now upheld, he vetoed the bill and his supporters prevented its passage over his veto.

The question of the constitutionality of the act first was brought before the high court by Warner W. Schroeder, Small's personal counsel, in an appeal from the conviction in the Riverview park case. Schroeder's point was that all of the technicalities of the law concerning the reading and signing of a three word amendment had not been complied with while the act was before the legislature.

The court had announced a decision holding this defect invalidated the law, but before it was made of record Attorney General Brundage, at the behest of Russell Whitman of the Civil Service Reform association, a champion of the pension system, confessed error in the case and the decision was abandoned.

Act Wins All Along Way.
This opened the way for a complete test of the validity of the act, and this was brought by its friends. Representative Small, E. Schnackenberg appeared for the complainants Frank Slater, and Representative Michael L. Igoe represented the south park board, that board being charged with obvious misuse as the defendant in the case.

This, on grounds that the act was unconstitutional, challenged the right of the south park board to call an examination.

Judge Hugo Friedl in the Circuit court sustained the act, and on the appeal to the Supreme court now has held that the constitutional provision concerning the several readings and printings of an act while on the passage cannot be raised against a statute in force for years, during which important rights have developed under it.

Figures concerning the number of employees legally ousted from the service of the park boards appointed by Small and the number illegally appointed in those two systems are not available, but the total is said to be large.

Ex-Employees to Organize.
Edward J. Burton, former chief election officer of the west park, said last night that he and some of his former associates now will form an organization to aid ousted employees who wish to attempt to regain their positions through court action, and to teach the merit workers still employed in the two systems.

THREE TO BEAT TRAIN KILLER.
Linda Purser, 35 years old, 6212 West Ave. was killed yesterday when she attempted to cross the railroad tracks at Roosevelt and Front of a freight train.

POLITICAL NOTES

James W. Good, for the Coolidge campaign, announced, issued the following statement yesterday: "The Coolidge campaign committee has had absolutely nothing to do with the court proceedings in South Dakota wherein it is reported an attempt is made to keep Senator Johnson's name off the primary ballot. We have not and will not advise any action in South Dakota or elsewhere that will prevent any person from having his name on the ballot as a candidate for any office."

An announcement concerning the management of the McAdoo campaign in Illinois is expected today from David Ladd Rockwell, chairman of the committee pushing the McAdoo candidacy.

Following a Thursday meeting of representatives of the Better Government association and other organizations, a statement was issued yesterday that in the election of Nov. 5 will be asked where they stand on the effort to obtain a recount of the ballots in the election.

EXPERT SUPPLIES COFFIN'S BOND ON 4 INDICTMENTS

Percy B. Coffin, campaign manager for Gov. Small, appeared before Judge John R. Caverly yesterday and gave bonds of $20,000 covering the four indictments returned against him on a charge of "contumacious" game by the special and regular grand juries. The bonds were signed by Ernest H. Lyons, one of the witnesses named on the bill against Coffin. Mr. Lyons is one of the real estate experts whose actions will be told in the trial. He is also a witness in the trial. The trial must be given within four months or the cases will be dismissed. Mr. O'Donnell said this was a "political indictment" and he would force the attorney general "to show his hand."

Attorney General Brundage, State's Attorney Crowe, and John Cameron, representing the Chicago Bar association, conferred on the matter of financing the prosecutions. Mr. Crowe agreed to pay out of his contingent fund for the trial of the George E. Carlson case, but said that would practically exhaust the fund. The county board will be asked to make a new appropriation for the trial of the Carlson case. Senator James J. Barbour will head the prosecution for the attorney general.

"I will prosecute whether I get paid or not," Senator Barbour said.

BOY, 16, FACES JURY TODAY FOR AUTO SLAYING

Club Women Enter Fight on Speed Menace.

A boy of 16 today will face a coroner's jury which is to investigate the death yesterday of Mrs. Mary Leahy, 50 years old, 318 Emerson street, Evanston, who died of injuries received on Wednesday when she was struck by an automobile driven by him. He is Arthur Wilson, 2022 Maple avenue, Evanston.

His car struck Mrs. Leahy as she attempted to cross the street near her home. The Evanston police placed a charge of assault against Wilson. Mary Liput, 7 years old, 1800 Tell place, was struck and fatally injured by a yellow taxicab last night as she was crossing the street in front of her home. The driver took the child to a drug store and then back to her home. He left without giving his name. The girl died two hours later. The number of the cab was taken by bystanders and the records show its driver is John Masamuz. He is sought by the police.

Mrs. Leahy's death and that of the Liput girl brought the total of Cook county's motor toll for 1923 to 764.

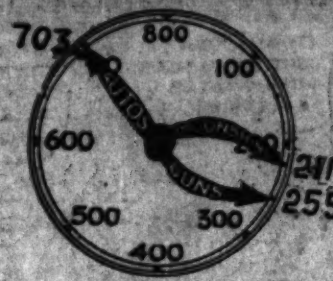

Burkhardt Is Injured.
The Lincoln sedan of William Burkhardt, brother-in-law of former Mayor Thompson, was smashed and Burkhardt was slightly injured early yesterday when the automobile was struck by another car at Broadway and Sheridan roads.

Burkhardt was driving Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goetz to their home at 41 Elm street from a dinner party at the home of Louis G. Blessing, 701 Sheridan road, Evanston. Mrs. Goetz was also slightly injured. Mrs. Burkhardt and Goetz were unhurt. All went to their homes unhurt.

Women Aroused to Menace.
Chicago's women, awakened to the speed menace by the death of one of their leaders, have entered the lists against violators of the city's motor laws.

The Chicago Women's club, assuming leadership in the drive, has called a meeting for Dec. 27. "Women from all the leading social and civic organizations" of the city have been urged to attend. The death several weeks ago of Mrs. George W. Bartlett, a member of the club, prompted the action, it was declared.

COOLIDGE HUNTS NEW CHIEF FOR SHIPPING BOARD

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Possibility that the next chairman of the shipping board may be a Republican from the state of Washington was seen today following rejection by the senate commerce committee of the nomination of Edward P. Farley of Chicago as a representative on the board from the "interior."

President Coolidge, casting about for a new chairman, does not think it likely a man with shipping experience may be found in the "interior," defining that word as meaning the territory between the Mississippi river and the Rocky mountains.

The President withdrew the nomination of Commissioner Haney of Portland, Ore. Haney is a Democrat. He was appointed by President Harding on the recommendation of practically all Oregon interests and parties.

The nominations of Mr. Haney and Mr. Thompson of Alabama were not withdrawn by the President because of dissatisfaction with either. But in picking a new chairman, and feeling it unlikely that he could find one in the "interior," he decided to have access to "water" territory.

Helen, with her husband, Cyril (Last Name), one of England's famous country house men, has been in the city for some time. She is a widow, and instead of having a husband, she has a husband. He found her living with her mother.

Helen has called on her new neighbors, the Harts, who are a family of the name of the Harts. They have a house in a small house on the Harts. Cyril's mother, named Helen, is the daughter of a family of the name of the Harts. She is one of the Harts. He is in love with Helen. Helen gives the first night of the Harts.

Later Helen goes up to London for the first time. She goes back to the Harts. She goes back to the Harts. She goes back to the Harts. She goes back to the Harts.

This morning it seemed to her that "Have you absolutely no regretted. And yet who is free? Do we have the love we have received, Helen remembered with a sigh of her youth. Debts they had had in the past, but now, simple financial ones, the paid. Whereas, later there never seemed anything you could do except as she had ceased to see the woods; to her atoning for their wayward gale. Her life seemed a conspiracy of gods that she had not got children (which she contrarily insisted on appearing as a crystal peacock seemed united against Nothing but her overpowering love. "There are no adjectives for love," she said. "There is nothing at all."

At last, for the first time, she was ago," she said to herself. "I could not know what love meant—nothing but love meant. Now that I know, I can't butterly. "The last chain of all has been considered the irony of it. "There is only a gradual low end to the deep end. Life, after only plots are in the hearts of the a flight from reality?" She was only, as one takes a coat on an expedition, after sunset.

How simple her life had seemed, and her mother, his relatives and he with a magic touch she had interests caught by the far flung last seemed to her now, not one little understood how Virginia could be meant to Mathew, she had said, this to Cyril. "You are his one great Virginia wanted was to be his one great. Fred and Faith were about the same size, though Faith was over a year older than her brother. They were asked many times if they were twins on account of their names and size.

Faith complained to her parents: "We might just as well be twins. Here I am a whole year and more older than Fred, and I don't get a bit of credit. He always thinks I'm the same as he is."

A short time ago my nephew was in the woods with his rifle. As some one told me, he was so nervous that he started his foot. He was laid up nine days and suffered a great deal.

About three days after this accident, the younger brother came to the office and asked how Philip was getting along.

He replied, "O, he is just as worse as he was yesterday."

HERTZ EXPECTS YELLOW TO DOT EUROPEAN CITIES

Returns After Placing Several Big Orders.

New York, Dec. 21.—(Special.)—John Hertz of Chicago today, returning from Europe today, reports that the situation abroad has had 100 sample cars in London, 100 in Paris, 100 in each in Lisbon, Copenhagen and Stockholm. These cars will be shipped over and put into operation in the European capitals as soon as possible. The aim is to use them as "propaganda" for the popularizing of American cars abroad.

"Europe is far behind American cities in the development of taxi service," Mr. Hertz reported. "In fact the cities which have visited there are a lack of high class cars and a haphazard method of handling the business. I am confident that within six months some of our cars have been put into use in the different European centers where they will be built up to a great demand for our service, which will be reflected in large orders for American made cars."

Europe Glad to See Him.

Mr. Hertz said he had been welcomed wherever he went in Europe. The only city in which he met any obstacles was London, which he visited during the heat of the election campaign. The protective tariff as proposed by Premier Baldwin was the burning issue, and when it was reported Mr. Hertz planned to launch as many as 400 American Yellow cabs upon London's streets there was a slight hubbub, the protectionists claiming the "Yellow cabs" as a tariff case where a high tariff wall was needed.

Howard Carter
REBUILDS TUT'S
GOLD CHARIOTS

LUXOR, Egypt, Dec. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—With the return of Howard Carter from Cairo today, work was resumed in the valley of the tombs of kings after three days' interruption, but not in the tomb of Tutankhamun itself, which remains closed until tomorrow.

The main object of the expedition was to get the chariot into the tomb, to an adjacent tomb used as a store chamber certain objects in which preservative treatment had been completed.

Work is now progressing in the laboratory on the Pharaoh's four gilded chariots, which require much treatment. In the first place, the priests took them to pieces, removed the wheels, and sawed the axle in two in order to get the chariot into the narrow tomb; then they were considerably battered by the ancient tomb robbers in their wild ransacking of the royal cache, and lastly the leather work of the horse trappings has been affected by dampness.

Mr. Serree-You-Right says:

LEGION NOTES

Officers were elected Thursday by 18th Engineers post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, as follows: Commander, Fred W. S. Neuberger; senior vice commander, W. O. Babcock; junior vice commander, J. O. Cagle; quartermaster, Robert W. White; chaplain, G. R. Liska; officer of the day, R. L. Murphy; adjutant, Vincent P. Dunlap. Arrangements were completed for giving a Christmas party tomorrow afternoon in the clubroom to more than 200 poor children.

HIRAM RISES TO ASK A QUESTION: NEW JAP PACT?

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Negotiations looking toward a revision of treaty relationship between Japan and the United States in connection with Japanese land rights will be investigated by Senator Hiram Johnson (Rep., Cal.) to ascertain whether an attempt is being made to perpetuate the situation resulting from the supreme court decision upholding anti-alien and laws of California and Washington.

The first word that Japan had approached the state department on the subject was incorporated in a statement issued by the Japanese government yesterday in Tokyo. Secretary Hughes declined to comment.

The statement made in Tokyo said a revision of treaty relationship of the dual nationality of Japanese together with enforcement of the alien land law of Japan, was the subject under consideration with the state department as a result of popular sentiment resulting from the Supreme court decision in the land case.

The expectation has prevailed in Washington that the Japanese government would make inquiry of the United States regarding the immigration question also.

Kenosha Firms Give Huge Yule Bonus to Employees

Kenosha, Wis., Dec. 21.—The first big Christmas distribution among Kenosha manufacturing plants took place today when the Nash Motors Company divided more than $40,000 among employees of the company as Christmas gratuities. Large distributions were made by the Simmons company, the Allen Cooper Underwear company, and other plants. At the plant of the Frank L. Wells company, in addition to money bonuses, every employee was given half a dressed hog.

Mr. Hertz said he had been welcomed wherever he went in Europe. The only city in which he met any obstacles was London, which he visited during the heat of the election campaign. The protective tariff as proposed by Premier Baldwin was the burning issue, and when it was reported Mr. Hertz planned to launch as many as 400 American Yellow cabs upon London's streets there was a slight hubbub, the protectionists claiming the "Yellow cabs" as a tariff case where a high tariff wall was needed.

Howard Carter
REBUILDS TUT'S
GOLD CHARIOTS

LUXOR, Egypt, Dec. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—With the return of Howard Carter from Cairo today, work was resumed in the valley of the tombs of kings after three days' interruption, but not in the tomb of Tutankhamun itself, which remains closed until tomorrow.

The main object of the expedition was to get the chariot into the tomb, to an adjacent tomb used as a store chamber certain objects in which preservative treatment had been completed.

Work is now progressing in the laboratory on the Pharaoh's four gilded chariots, which require much treatment. In the first place, the priests took them to pieces, removed the wheels, and sawed the axle in two in order to get the chariot into the narrow tomb; then they were considerably battered by the ancient tomb robbers in their wild ransacking of the royal cache, and lastly the leather work of the horse trappings has been affected by dampness.

BRITISH HOPE TO AVOID AFGHAN WAR, PARIS TOLD

Deny Sending Ultimatum
on Murders.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
[Copyright, 1923: By The Chicago Tribune.]
PARIS, Dec. 21.—(Tribune radio.)—The French government today was officially assured that the British do not intend to take military measures against the Afghans if they can avoid it.

The Afghanistan question has crystallized the French purporters and leaders regarding recognition of the present cabinet will make an effort to reach an accord with Russia, but the French government understands that France is ready to abandon its claims for war debts against Russia in return for the soviet support of France's efforts to delay payment of the war debt to the United States and Great Britain.

Britain Denies Ultimatum.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, Dec. 21.—An official denial was issued in London today that anything in the nature of an ultimatum has been sent to the Afghan government or that there is any intention to send more troops. It was stated that only diplomatic pressure is being used to induce the Amir's government to turn over the murderers of British officers and their wives.

There is a large British force in Peshawar ready for use if it should become necessary. The diplomatic measures, which it is understood are being used, is a threat not to renew the treaty of two years ago by which Afghanistan was recognized as a fully independent nation of France.

France has established close relations with Afghanistan and it is suspected in some circles here that Paris has had a good deal to do with stiffening the backs of the Afghan against the British demands. It is said that arms which were stopped at Bombay by the British were sold by the French to the Afghans for a mere song and that they have not yet been paid for.

EMPLOYERS EYE MOVE TO OBTAIN QUESSE PARDON

Dudley Taylor, secretary of the Employers' association, yesterday wrote letters to Gov. Small and the state board asking that he be given notice of the expected application for pardon for William Quesse and other officers of the Chicago Flat Janitor union.

Members of the union and other organizations affiliated with the State Federation of Labor are simultaneously circulating small pledge cards and petitions for pardons for the convicted leaders of the janitors.

Around labor centers it was reported that the committee appointed by Kelly to obtain some union indemnity for him is headed by "Mike" Kelly, secretary-treasurer of the meat cutters' union and patron of "Jimmy" Smith, whom Small pardoned after he had been convicted of murder during a holdup. Quesse is said to be a member of Kelly's committee.

SMALL LAWYERS OBTAIN DELAY IN INTEREST SUITS

Gov. Small's lawyers, Werner Schroeder and Thomas D. Maister, won a tactical victory before Maister in Chancery Harry A. Riley yesterday when they obtained adjournment of the hearing until Jan. 2, with little progress made in the taking of depositions in the $2,000,000 interest suits.

Howard A. Rice, assistant auditor of the old Fort Dearborn National bank, spent his third day on the witness stand and at night his cross examination had not been concluded.

"It is monstrous," said Assistant Attorney General Charles W. Hadley. "The method of the cross examination, the long and needless questions asked, show clearly that the defense attorneys desire to delay these hearings. We have done one day's work in three."

26 Lynchings in 1923 as Against 61 Last Year

New York, Dec. 21.—Lynchings in the United States during 1923 numbered twenty-six, against sixty-one in 1922, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People announced today.

Grant Temporary Writ Halt Phone Rate Cut

Federal Judge Ryan A. Evans, James H. Wilkerson, and George T. Page yesterday granted a temporary injunction restraining the Illinois Commerce Commission from enforcing its order to the Illinois Bell Telephone company to reduce rates. The commission's order was issued on Aug. 15. The injunction will remain in force until a bill of complaint filed by the telephone company is decided in the District court.

PACKERS GIVEN EXTRA TIME TO SELL INTERESTS

Washington, D. C., Dec. 21.—Justice Bailey of the District of Columbia Supreme court today granted Armour & Co. and Swift & Co., packers, an extension of time until Jan. 12, 1924, to dispose of the remaining interests of the two groups in stockyards and railroad terminals.

The order directed the companies to advertise the interests for sale in newspapers at the places where the yards are located and also in New York in March and September, 1924.

LIQUIDATING AND HEDGING SALES DEPRESS GRAINS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.
Hedging, with prices due to liquidating and hedging pressure, has depressed the grain markets around the world of the day and also at the low in some time, with a disastrous effect. The finish was at a low of 10 1/2% on wheat, 9 1/2% on corn, 10 1/2% on oats and 10 on rye.

LIQUIDATING AND HEDGING SALES DEPRESS GRAINS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Grain markets, with lower prices due to liquidating and hedging pressure, opened the grain markets around the middle of the day and also at the low end in some times, with a distrustful feeling. The finish was at losses of 1/16 to 1/8 on wheat, 1/16 on corn, 1/16 on oats and 1/16 on rye.

The wheat market is beginning to feel the effects of the continued heavy marketing of spring wheat in the Canadian northwest and of the deliveries of cash wheat on December contracts. The latter was $14.00 at Chicago and $14.00 at Minneapolis. Cash wheat markets were weak, with premiums narrow.

East says May wheat. Selling pressure from the northwest, Canada and the Pacific coast was more pronounced, and despite good buying, the market was not able to hold.

Imports of Canadian wheat into the United States for November, October, and November, according to the U. S. Census Bureau, were 1,000,000 bushels, compared with 1,000,000 bushels for the same months last year.

There is enough Canadian wheat to make up for any shortage in the spring crop raised in the United States east of the Rockies. This factor is beginning to assert itself in weakening values, but the surprising feature is the way the market is absorbed on breaks.

December prices were 1/16 higher to 1/8 lower, although the basis on No. 2 grades was relatively unchanged. The December, cash, after breaking 1/16, rallied nearly 1/8. Receipts were 88 cars and cash sales 150,000 bu., with No. 2 wheat 1/16 higher to 1/8 lower.

There is no for May, although there was fair buying to take off hedges against cash sales.

Provisions are lower. Good receipts of hogs and lower prices for corn brought selling orders for provisions, and prices declined and closed with small losses. Cash trade was light. Prices follow:

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

The improvement that most traders had last night was that grain prices were not as low as they had been in the past few days.

The Chicago Tribune of yesterday was the only paper in the country to publish the news of the grain market. The grain market was not as low as it had been in the past few days.

Trade is getting out of December corn. Cash interest has been fair since last week and was selling December and buying May.

Sam Miner says he is long corn and has been for some time. He says he is long corn and has been for some time.

Reports that the cooperative wheat pool had sold some of the wheat it has stored at Minneapolis are without foundation, according to managers from there last Tuesday.

Imports of Canadian wheat into the United States for November, October, and November, according to the U. S. Census Bureau, were 1,000,000 bushels, compared with 1,000,000 bushels for the same months last year.

Average price paid for hauling corn from shock in Indiana this year was 8.4c per bu., according to Statistics, George C. Bryant's report to the department of agriculture.

Flouring from the stalk averaged 8.1c per bu. About two-thirds of the hauling had been completed by Dec. 1. A much larger volume than usual was hoped for this year because of the poor quality of the crop and the high price asked by haulers.

In regard to exports of flour, Secretary Pomeroy of the Department of Trade has been advised by Washington that flour manufactured in the United States, regardless of whether it is made of domestic or foreign wheat, is bound to be a domestic manufactured product and exported as such.

"Winter wheat conditions maintained," says the Modern Miller. "There has been much rain in the southwest and some sections complain of excessive moisture causing plants to lose color. Growth is unusually heavy in some districts and reports as to stealing grain are satisfactory. Movement from the farms reported light."

"Let the farmers see a piece of praise to the speculators," says R. C. Harris of the Chicago Board of Trade. "With every other position breaking under the weight of cash grain, eastern speculation continues to absorb enormous amounts of Chicago wheat futures, regardless of merchandising differences, outside pressure, supply and demand, and other influences that are normally reported as price making factors."

Christmas Buying Heavy.
Yesterday's news of business and austerity was generally cheerless.
Week-end trade reviews comment on heavy Christmas trade.
There was a general agreement that seasonal or gift buying has passed all records, but practically reports nevertheless testify to unusually warm weather holding a fair distribution of business "well spread," and that's a relief.
There were additional announcements of favorable dividend action by several corporations. The American Can company declared an extra dividend of one penny per share. The Falcon Fiberspinning company declared an extra dividend of 1 per cent, and The Steel company an extra dividend of 1 per cent. The Kroger Department stores declared an extra dividend of $2.33 on the 1 per cent preferred stock covering the period from Sept.

Stockholders of the Texas and Pacific railway, which has been in financial difficulties, approved a reorganization plan, which has already been approved by the directors.

Stockholders of the American Locomotive company have voted to increase the authorized stock to $1,000,000. A stock dividend of 100 per cent was authorized and the $300,000 stock will be added to stockholders on a pro rata basis.

Two-thirds of the stock was changed from $100 per share to $25 a share and will be sold to stockholders at $25 a share.

The Bethlehem Steel corporation sold its holdings of National Iron stock to inside interests.

CORPORATION EARNINGS

FISK RUBBER
For the ten months ended October 31, 1952, Fisk Rubber Co. reported net earnings of $100,000, or 10¢ per share, compared with $100,000, or 10¢ per share, for the same period in 1951. The company's earnings were reduced on Thursday October 31, 1952.

An estimated hog run of 11,000 for today will swell the week's receipts to 210,000, or the second largest on record.

The month's arrivals at Chicago already total around 300,000 and the year to date 10,181,000, against 7,512,000 same period a year ago.

Yesterday's market receipts were 12,000 head, mostly from the West, with 12,000 expected today.

Lean Trade Improves.

The big decrease in recent sheep receipts served as a remedy for the lamb market, although a weak underline still prevailed in face of the slightly higher prices paid for strictly desirable killers. The best yearlings reached a 10c stock level at $11.10, while bulk of sorted kinds brought $12.75 to $13.00. Offerings at 8.00 were about a third less than was expected and half the usual number. Friday, while the week's receipts are second smallest since July and 45,000 below previous week's, Yearlings brought $11.00, with clipped Probably receipts of hogs at Chicago for Monday are estimated from 48,000 to 52,000. M. Mintoer marked 48,000.

MELLON TAX CUT
BURDEN
UP IN BILLIONSSmaller Incomes to Reap Big Benefit.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
The revision is the foremost problem of the day in Washington, while in the midwest as a favorite topic it is swinging the neck and neck with prohibition. Vox Pop, with great versatility, is swinging his talk between rum and revenue reform, two subjects rated as the wettest and the driest in the west.

Secretary Mellon's proposal for income tax reductions is before congress and more than 7,000,000 income tax payers are trying to figure how the plan will affect their tax bills. Beyond this fringe are millions more who are wondering how, if at all, it may lighten the growing burden of state and local taxation, as well as federal, and ease up the indirect tax in the family bill for groceries, clothing, meats, rent, and the rest. This tax, though unseen, is there just the same, for taxes have a habit of promiscuously along until they are borne by the ultimate consumer.

U. S. Tax Bill Is Billions.
As a background for the Mellon plan, which in the end dovetails into the entire structure of taxation, it may be fairly to sketch the general tax situation, using round numbers to avoid misleading statistics. It runs in billions of dollars, so a few millions one way or the other make no essential difference.

America's tax bill—federal, state, and local—amounted in 1922 to $7,000,000,000. In 1921 it ran $3,333,000,000. In 1919, before the war, it was around $2,000,000,000. These are computations by the national industrial conference board.

Premium on Extravagance.
Since the armistice federal taxes have been steadily decreasing, while state and local taxes have been growing. The growth of state and local taxation has been largely owing to the operations of the income tax, which has led the wealthy to come outwards by buying a great volume of tax exempt securities issued by state and local governments. Municipal, county, and state bonds have been absorbed so readily that it has put a premium on extravagance. Of the $7,000,000,000 tax bill last year, only $2,000,000,000 went in federal taxes, while local taxes ate up $3,333,000,000 and state taxes nibbled the rest.

The total tax bill last year amounted to $64.83 for every man, woman, and child in the United States, as compared with $7.58 in 1921, $22.73 in 1922, and $19.67 in 1923. The decline in 1923 as compared with 1921 was owing entirely to smaller federal tax receipts due to the business slump in 1921.

Length of Nation's Income.
To get a measure of the burden of taxation, which has piled a load on the citizen that is making him hunched, the industrial conference board has drawn a comparison between total taxes levied and the national income.

The board's estimate of national income for 1922 is $55,000,000,000, an increase of 17 per cent over 1921. On this basis taxes represented 13 per cent of the national income in 1922, or 6.4 per cent in 1921, 13 per cent in 1923, and 16.7 per cent in 1922. Thus, so far as the burden of taxation on national income is concerned, the United States is back to the 1919 level, but is still twice as high as the pre-war level of 1913. To put it another way, in 1922 approximately six weeks' income had to be contributed in taxes as compared with about three weeks' income in 1913.

Where Mellon Plan Comes In.
All this is by way of getting a background for the Mellon income-tax reduction plan. This plan, in substance, may be divided into two parts, one dealing with the relief given persons of small or moderate income, the other treating the surtax particularly in its application to the very rich. Long ago the surtax indicated it had a lame leg. Originally it was expected to fill the same bag with taxes gathered from the very wealthy, but by shooting high it impaled the "plutocrats" to take shelter in tax exempt securities and put their wealth beyond the reach of the revenue collector.

The Mellon theory is that by allowing the surtax lower the government can get more taxes. Back in 1914 a total of 1,234 persons filed returns on incomes of more than $100,000 and paid taxes on a billion dollars net income, but in 1921 only 246 filed in the $100,000 class, and their total taxable net income had shrunk to $153,000,000. This absorption of large wealth in tax
